Minister's Meditation

The Rev. Jennie Barrington, Interim Minister

"A people without the knowledge of their past history, origin, and culture is like a tree without roots." (Marcus Garvey)

Dear Members and Friends,

Warm and encouraging greetings to you in this New Year we all find ourselves in. People keep calling these political times “unprecedented.” Even so, there is great wisdom and insight in our past history to be gleaned, if we only look for it and uncover it. Looking at our past can show us how our predecessors survived, and even thrived, through times as difficult, or more difficult, than ours. And our history can help us clarify what is missing, and what is still strong, in our current circumstances. And looking toward our roots can strengthen our sense of who we are, and what our values and principles are, in the midst of confusing and uncertain times. Indeed, I would assert that a widespread lack of a higher, broader, and deeper perspective on the current state of our nation was the main thing that was missing in this election season. We can be greatly helped by reaching back to that higher, broader, and deeper perspective, grasping it, and applying what is useful to our present concerns and fears.

I therefore commend to you our congregation's Partner Church committee. They have devotedly kept us connected to our denominational past, the historic Unitarians in Transylvania. In 1990, when the Berlin Wall fell, and Eastern Europe opened up, UU congregations in the United States were invited to "partner" with a Unitarian congregation in Romania. I am so proud to say that we were one of the first to sign up. These "partner church" relationships are mutually rewarding, enriching, and enjoyable. Our members have received so much enrichment and inspiration from coming to know the members and ministers of the Beszterce Unitarian Church, our partner church since October of 1990. Last night, the Partner Church committee presented a slide show of their trip to Transylvania last August. Narrated by Tony Ganong, with additional commentary by the "twelve pilgrims," the presentation was informative and entertaining. And the turn-out was impressive-- at least 40 people!

Our Partner Church committee provides us with opportunities to help our partner congregation, especially with their building's maintenance needs. The donations we sent to them last year contributed toward a car for their minister, and a handrail for their church's stairway. We are the main source of outside help for the Beszterce Unitarian church during these very difficult economic times in their area of Eastern Europe. And our Partner Church's main fundraiser is coming right up this month! So please join me and "Come to the Cabaret, Old Friend!" on Sunday, January 29th, at 7:00 p.m., in our sanctuary and social hall. Last year's Cabaret was a rich indulgence of lovely music, delicious food, raffle prizes, fun, and fellowship.

May this be a month when we learn from the wisdom in our past, including poets and prophets, especially the great Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., a true prophet for his day and ours.

Rev. Jennie ("It's a privilege to be here.")

President's Column

Confession Time: Lis and I have been watching the Hallmark Channel. A lot. You know, it is the channel that features an endless loop of shows depicting beautiful young people exchanging romantic repartee, with true romance overcoming obstacles like running out of egg nog. We turned to this when even the decisions of what house to buy on the HGTV series proved to be too stressful.

It was probably the election that caused this, but the time of year is certainly a factor. The Holidays are over and there is still much more darkness than light in the day. The temptation is strong to retreat into oneself, to curl up with a good book, and tell the world to run itself.

However, this is definitely not the time to withdraw from the field. The next few months will be very important for the UUCS and for the nation. For the latter, a respectful insistence on adherence to the UU Principles, which happen to be congruent with the Constitution, is in order. Our Social Action and Adult RE Committees have planned excellent activities to help us learn and be inspired as well as reach out to the community. Some actions will be proposed that might take us out of our comfort zone, so please be prepared to listen, think, and decide.

The Committee for Building Renovation has started work and one of their most important tasks is to solicit input from the congregation on the decisions that will have to be made before construction begins. Please participate in the discussion and, if you have not participated in the Capital Campaign, which ends this month, consider giving any amount.

The Governance Task Force has also been hard at work and needs your input to assist them. This work is not glamorous but it is very important in providing an effective foundation on which we will operate.

Of course, we are all looking forward to the culmination of the work of the Ministerial Search Committee this spring. The hard work of this congregation has created an environment that should be attractive to the type of minister that we want and need.

This has been a difficult time for many in our congregation and I would like to offer a special thanks to the members of the Caring Committee and others who have reached out to those with physical and emotional pain. Let us continue to reach out to each other and beyond.

Phil Turner

P.S. A Pre-Christmas Miracle: I was standing in a long checkout line a few days before Christmas fuming over the shoppers who seem to take forever to locate the checkbook, argue about prices, and not deal with their whining children. The woman behind me had several unruly children and I was running several zingers through my head when I heard the youngest say that she “had to go potty!” I asked the Mom if she wanted to go ahead of me and she replied “Yes, and Merry Christmas!”

It was like I had taken a wonderful drug and the good feeling lasted through the crazy traffic on the way home. Such a substantial return on so small an investment.

Room for One More Resolution?

It has been my great honor to be your “Web Conduit” for the past 6 months. I have enjoyed the challenge of learning the new (to me) software and working closely with many of you to make sure the site is as good-looking, as current, and as personal to our Congregation as it can be. If you aren’t in the habit of checking our site regularly, I encourage you to make one more New Year’s resolution to do so.

The address is easy to remember: www.uucolumbia.org and, once you are there, the site is easy to navigate. A few things to focus on:

Notice the Gold area on the right of the page (Home Page). There you can learn what the next sermon topic will be. You can also click on Upcoming Services to learn what topics will be coming up or Service Archive to see past service topics and, often, the transcript from those services.

There are three picture/text boxes at the bottom of the page. You probably already know Who We Are, but the News and Get Involved boxes change frequently, so check them as you pull up the Home Page. Click on the Learn More link to get the full story.

Now scroll back up to the top of the Home Page to the small white words (Home, About, News, etc.). Check them all out when you have the time, but, on a regular basis, I encourage you to click on the News link and then Events. At the top of that page, you’ll find a listing of the next four sermon topics and also the next four forum topics. That is followed by upcoming events at our church. I work hard to keep that current and it is a great spot for quick information.

Last, but not least, from the Home Page, same top line of Home, About... look at the Social Action tab. Linda McLeod works tirelessly to keep that section up to date and inspirational. Pay special attention to Social Action Activities for information about our Social Justice agenda.

We have a very vibrant, involved congregation and I believe our website reflects that. I call upon all of you to help me in my quest for perfection on our site. If you see an error or other problem, let me know. Thank you for the trust you have placed in me.

Happy New Year,

Lis Turner

mslistturner@gmail.com

P.S. You’ll notice a column along the right hand side of every page except the Home Page containing testimonials. I invite you to submit your own reasons why this congregation is important to you. I’d like to keep the site fresh by rotating a selection of them. Please help!

News and Notes

January 15, 2017

“What Prophetic Speeches are For” (Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunday) In this worship service we will look to the wisdom and insight of poets, philosophers, and prophets that can encourage and empower us in difficult political times, especially that of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., who was a real prophet for his time and ours. (Rev. Jennie preaching)

January 22, 2017

“Some of Our Unitarian and Universalist Martyrs” (Rev. Jennie preaching)

January 29, 2017

“Our Second Annual Standing Up Against Gun Violence Sunday” (Rev. Jennie preaching)

Capital Campaign Update

We now have over $190,500 in pledges for our building renovations. The board has already started planning the financing, and we have a Committee on Building Renovations to supervise the projects. We're on our way toward new bathrooms, a well-lit RE wing with decent floors, new ceilings in the social hall/sanctuary, and a sanctuary you won't recognize!

But other than raising as much money as possible, the essence of a successful capital campaign is engagement by the entire congregation. At this point, we still have pledges from only about 58% of the congregation; our goal is 100%. No gift is too small because it shows you care! Just fill out a pledge card (behind the sanctuary seats), or mail a check to the UUCC with "Capital Campaign" in the memo line, or send an email stating your pledge to our Administrator at uucc@uucolumbia.org.

The Campaign will officially end on January 31, so whether you do it now or later, please don't forget us! We've made so many improvements to our "fixer-upper" over the past thirty years. Help us make it into a place we're proud to show people.

CANstruction Donations

Please leave your cans for Harvest Hope in the red tub in the Social Hall. The cans will be distributed to classrooms for use in their January 29 CANstruction projects. To encourage fun competition between the classrooms we need all the cans we can get. Not only will your canned goods provide much needed food sources for those in need, it will provide an avenue of learning and fun for our students. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Operation Bed-Roll

Our CYRE Youth Group (middle and high schoolers) will be collaborating with the Midlands Collaboration on Operation Bed-Roll. Operation Bedroll Morgan Gauthreaux-Hanes, our Religious Education Assistant, attended the meeting this past Sunday and will be following up with more details about the event. In the meantime, Please Donate Plastic Bags to our CYRE. Place them in the green collection tub in the Social Hall. We are also in need of G size crochet hooks and folks who crochet! Your instruction will be invaluable and a life-time gift to our children and youth.

Facilitator Needed for Spiritual Practices Course

Adult RE would like to sponsor a course on Spiritual Practices. The course would be interactive and inclusive of all forms of spirituality. If you are interested in facilitating this course, please contact Pat Mohr at patmohr@mindspring.com.

UUCC Christian Heritage Group

An interest has been expressed in forming a very casual group of persons of Christian background to talk about our heritage. We hope to address issues such as "what I value most from my Christian experiences," "why I chose to become UU," "are there practices, teachings, etc., which I believe might benefit the UUCC," "how can I best live out my Christian ethos in the UU environment," and many, many more. We will start by meeting for lunch and conversation at 11:30 on Tuesday morning, January 23, at the J Peter's restaurant at 2005 South Beltline Blvd, just east of Richland Mall. We would love for you to join us. If you have questions, contact Jenny Beale at 803-776-2625 or Jeczbl14@aol.com. or Ginny Verne at 803-786-7114 or jtverne33@att.net.

Library Painting Update

Many hands do indeed lighten a work load! A big thanks to Gail Dawson, Bonnie Stronach, Lis Turner, Amy Jones, and Adam Zircklebach for their help. The entire project should be completed by the end of the week. I apologize to anyone who has been displaced as a result of this work.

Adult RE Movie Club: Friday, January 13 Fix It: Healthcare at the Tipping Point

The Adult Religious Education Committee would like to invite everyone to watch the movie: Fix It: Healthcare at the Tipping Point. This film was two years in the making, with more than forty voices advocating for reform, including: activists, health policy experts, economists, physicians, nurses, patients, business and labor leaders. This 48-minute documentary takes an in-depth look into how our dysfunctional health care system is damaging our economy, suffocating our businesses, discouraging physicians and negatively impacting the nation's health, while remaining un-affordable for a third of our citizens.

The idea is to have you watch the movie at home and then have a discussion and Q&A session at church. It'll be like a book club, but we call it "movie club".

The link for watching the movie is: <http://fixithealthcare.com/>

The discussion session will take place in the UUCC Social Hall on Friday, January 13, at 6:30 p.m. Emilio Perez, MD will be the facilitator of the discussion. No dinner/food provided, but you may bring your own. Everyone with an interest in healthcare policy is invited. Bring a list of questions or tell us about your personal experiences as a patient, employee, business owner or healthcare provider. RSVP to Emilio Perez if you plan to attend: eperezjorge@sbcglobal.net

Adult Choir Schedule

We will rehearse and sing on Sunday, January 15, at 9:30 a.m. in the sanctuary and every two weeks after. Bill Moody, Director

Visitor Orientation, Sunday, January 22

Our next Visitor orientation class will be held on Sunday, January 22 in the UUCC library. We will begin about 15 minutes after service and usually end in about 45 minutes. Light refreshments are served. If you are new to the UUCC, or have come for a while and have questions this session is for you. This class is designed to help familiarize you with the principles of Unitarian Universalism and answer any questions you might have. For more information contact: Patty Drews email: membership@uucolumbia.org or 803-931-6799

The UUCC Book Club is open to all members and friends of UUCC. Please contact Ruthie Saunders if you have questions or would like more information: rsaunders@sc.edu

Please drop bags off in the green tub in the Social Hall.

Defying the Nazis: The Sharps' War

Movie follows Potluck

You won't want to miss the film Defying the Nazis: The Sharps' War, being shown Sunday, January 15 at 2:00 p.m. following a church potluck. Bring your favorite dish and enjoy a good time together prior to the showing of this film intended to stimulate a timely discussion about our current refugee situation. You may have seen the film before but it is such an important topic that needs our attention it is worth seeing a second time.

We have invited the community to join us for the 2:00 showing hoping to stimulate their interest in this very serious subject. Let's be sure to have a good UCC turnout to support this program.

Defying the Nazis: The Sharps' War is an account of a daring rescue mission. It tells the story of a Unitarian minister and his wife, who helped to save hundreds of imperiled political dissidents and Jewish refugees fleeing the Nazi occupation across Europe.

Grant Seuser, a very knowledgeable person on this subject, will be chairing this event.

Adult RE Short Course: God Is Not One, Beginning February 12

This spring, a short course at UUCC will be devoted to the eight most broadly practiced world religions (Islam, Christianity, Buddhism, Judaism, Confucianism, Yoruba religion, Daoism, Hinduism, and Atheism). It will be based on the book God is Not One by Stephen Prothero (2010). This book is the successor to Prothero's best-seller Religious Literacy, which emphasizes the importance of a broad acquaintance with the world's religions in a modern America in which there are more Moslems than Episcopalians. The book provides a valuable background for UUCC's greeters, Membership activists who help integrate new friends and members to the congregation, and in general for members of the committees and board of UUCC. The book is inexpensively available from such sources as Amazon and addall.com. The short course will meet from 1:00-2:30 p.m. Sundays in the Library. It will meet in six sessions, first on February 12, and continuing on alternate Sundays, with accommodations for other congregational activities as necessary. The instructor will be Don Cooper. Don's e-mail is dndcooper@gmail.com, with mobile phone (803) 466-5087. If you are interested in participating in this short course, please contact him before the end of January, preferably by e-mail.

Fun-Draiser Dinner February 17

There are only two seats left for the dinner given by Jean Capalbo and Ginny Verne. The February 17 meal will be Italian vegetarian with a shrimp starter option. You can reserve your seat with $40 payable to UUCC with "February 17 Fundraiser" on the memo line. For more information, contact Jean 803-799-1001 or Ginny 803-786-7114.

NAMI Walks, Saturday, April 1

Save the Date of Saturday, April 1, for the annual NAMI campaign. NAMI is the National Alliance for Mental Illness and UUCC traditionally shows great support for this cause. Put it on your calendar and plan to walk in this annual event in downtown Columbia and be thinking of ways you can help to be a part of this. The Social Action Committee is looking forward to your usual great participation as we encourage assistance to those in the mental health field.

Children & Adult Chalice Lighters Needed

Transitions Volunteers Needed Second Saturday of Each Month

UUCC has a recurring obligation to help serve the evening meal at Transitions Homeless Recovery Center, 2025 Main Street in Columbia, on the second Saturday of every month. Contact Bob Whitaker at bobwhit46@gmail.com to volunteer.

UUCC Governance and Structure Ad Hoc Committee

In June 2016 the UUCC Board established an ad hoc committee, UUCC Governance and Structure, to review, analyze, and recommend revisions to our UUCC governance structure, ensuring a clearer picture of who we are as an organization. We have been meeting regularly since June and sending monthly reports to the Board as well as to the other committee chairs in our congregation.

The UUCC Governance and Structure Ad Hoc Committee would like to know what questions, concerns or suggestions our members might have about how UUCC operates. Do you have ideas about governance that you would like to share? Has your experience in other congregations or faith communities given you some insight into governance that you feel might benefit UUCC? Do you have concerns or questions and are not sure where or how to share those concerns or ask those questions? We want to hear from you, our members. Please direct your comments, questions, concerns, or suggestions to our Chair, Keitha Whitaker, at uukeitha@gmail.com.

Join Us For Lunch After Coffee Hour!

The Membership Committee has noticed that people have been arranging last minute group lunches after the service. # UUA Southern Region Chalice Lighters Call

Dear Chalice Lighters and Friends of the Southern Region,

We're pleased to announce the first region-wide Chalice Lighters call! This call will support extending the Pledge to End Racism program from First UU Church of Richmond to all interested congregations in the Southern Region. This program is designed using a leadership development model so participants gain skills and develop competence in not only talking about racism, but in facilitating discussions about race, and then working together to organize Living the Pledge workshops for people throughout their community. Instead of just talking about racism, this program develops knowledgeable, passionate leaders who can do something to address it. The Pledge strengthens local antiracism efforts, brings congregations together with other faith communities with like commitments, and creates teams of people involved on the local level in making change in their own communities.

With generous donations from Southern Region Chalice Lighters and friends, the Pledge to End Racism organizers will be available to provide, at minimal cost, curriculum and consultation to fifty (50) or more congregations in organizing the Pledge to End Racism programs for their communities. This will include all the materials to develop Living the Pledge to End Racism workshops, select and train small group facilitators, and promote the program in your congregation and to your larger community - all with the goal of building a community-wide movement to end racism.

By spreading the Pledge to End Racism program throughout the South, Unitarian Universalist congregations can have a recognizable impact on the rise in racial tensions and division and can play an essential part in building stronger communities imbued with justice, equity, and compassion.

UUCC Board of Trustees

Summary of October 19, 2016 Meeting

The Board of Trustees met October 19, 2016 from 6:32 to 8:34 PM.

Welcome to New Board Member

Since our last meeting the Leadership Development Committee recommended to the Board that they select Emilio Perez-Jorge as a member at large. Board members voted electronically to accept this recommendation. Tonight they welcomed Emilio to the Board.

Ministerial Search Committee

Linda Brennon and David Crockett came to this meeting to discuss the salary and benefits to be offered to a prospective settled minister. The Negotiating Committee (Linda, David, and Bob Whitaker) met with two UU consultants; they generally followed the UUA guidelines. The salary to be offered will be a little higher than average for our geographic area; that should make us more attractive to candidates. We will offer UU retirement, health insurance, group disability and life insurance, dental insurance, a professional expense allowance, and one-time moving expenses. The Board approved the Negotiating Committee's salary/benefits recommendations.

Treasurer's Report

Bob Whitaker reported that we are still $6,000 behind on pledge collections. We collected $3,800 from fundraising; we had donations for memorials and tributes. We have a positive variance of $4,100 at the end of the first quarter of our fiscal year.

Committee Reports

Technology Services Committee Donald Griggs reported that Lis Turner has been doing wonderful work posting information to the new web page.

Finance Committee The Capital Campaign is progressing nicely. We have 50 pledges totaling $119,000+ and we have collected $47,500 to date. New members Quillin and Judy Davis have made an offer to match any amount pledged or donated before November 30, up to a maximum of $30,000.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

UUCC Coffee House

Tim VanDenBerg met with Steve Fisher and Steve accepted the terms Tim offered. Steve is not interested in forming a tax exempt entity. Apparently some upcoming shows have been cancelled. Some of the more successful shows will be presented later in the season and then the Coffee House will cease to exist.

NEW BUSINESS

Holiday Bonuses

The Board agreed to provide year-end bonuses to our staff in compliance with our Personnel Policy. Rev. Jennie requested that she not receive a bonus.

Ad hoc Committee for Building Renovation

The Board approved the formation of an Ad hoc Committee for Building Renovation. This group will work with the Finance Committee to make recommendations to the Board for financing and timing of the project; work with the Architect in planning; solicit and review input from the congregation on design options and desired use of facilities; recommend contractors; coordinate to minimize disruptions to UUCC activities during construction; keep the congregation apprised of construction plans and progress; participate in ongoing inspections of work; participate in final inspection and approve final payment to general contractor. Members of this group are Richard Culler, Carolyn West, Pat Mohr, Richard McLeod, and Quillin Davis.

Minutes summarized by Sandy Chubon, Secretary

The Seven Principles of Unitarian Universalism

Grateful for the religious pluralism that enriches and ennobles our faith, we are inspired to deepen our understanding and expand our vision. We covenant to affirm and promote:

1. The inherent worth and dignity of every person
2. Justice, equity, and compassion in human relationships
3. Acceptance of one another and encouragement of spiritual growth in our congregations
4. A free and responsible search for truth and meaning
5. The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and society at large
6. The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all
7. Respect for the interdependent web of existence of which we are a part

If these principles reflect your understanding of the world and appeal to your sense of spiritual fulfillment, we invite you to consider membership in the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Columbia. If you would like to discuss membership or if you would simply like more information, please speak to any member of the Membership Committee or of the Board of Trustees.
